Indiana's Greatest Distributors of Dry Goods.

Indianapolis Never Saw So Many Handsome Furs.

As we've assembled in this initial display for the season of 1900-1901. Our own stock has been chosen with intelligent regard for the popular demand—much that is extravagantly elegant, but much also that boasts the virtue of temptingly low prices. This showing, which is now at its best, has been supplemented by more than a hundred garments from a New York furrier. Russian Sable and Persian Lamb are shown in a profusion equaling any previous exhibit of the more ordinary furs.

Come see them, if only to see, but again we assure you that prices are decidedly tempting.

INTERURBAN CONTRACTS

REPRESENTATIVES OF COMPANIES AND COUNCIL COMMITTEE.

Points About Proposed Franchise Objectionable to the Companies—Municipal Affairs.

The committee on contracts and franchises of the City Council is now wrestling with the ordinance to ratify the contracts and franchises made by the Board of Public Works with the Indianapolis & Greenfield, and the Indianapolis, Greenwood & Franklin rapid transit companies. A meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the detectives' department in the police station. Those present, in addition to the committee, were Attorney Winter, representing the Indianapolis Street-railway Company, Hugh McGowan, president of the local company, Charles L. Henry, of Anderson, representing the Union Traction Company, Attorney Harding, Mr. McDonald, Mr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Binford, representing the Greenfield company.

Mr. Henry was one of the principal speakers, and he is desirous of having the franchise amended before it is finally ratified by the Council. While the other two companies have accepted the franchise as prepared by the Board of Public Works, the contract to be ratified by the Council will affect all of the interurban companies now entering the city and those proposing to run into Indianapolis.

The principal contention argued yesterday afternoon was the clause compelling the interurban companies to sell Indianapolis Street-railway Company tickets, and also the clause that after five years they must issue transfers from one line to another. Mr. McGowan, president of the Indianapolis Company, said his company did not favor the interurban companies acting as agents for the Indianapolis Company to sell tickets and the representative of the interurban roads presented their companies would lose money in being compelled to sell and accept Indianapolis tickets.

President McGowan said he would not accept the contract as it now reads in regard to the interurban companies selling tickets of the Indianapolis Street-railway Company. Attorney Winter claimed that under the contract of the Indianapolis Street-railway Company it had the exclusive use of the street-car business in Indianapolis and had the right to haul the Indianapolis traffic. He was of opinion that the interurban companies should be allowed to charge 5 cents for Indianapolis passengers and be compelled to sell Indianapolis tickets at the same rate. Mr. Henry also objected to the license placed on the cars. He said under the contract the Anderson Company would be compelled to pay five times as much as the Greenfield line, while cars would not enter the city any other than on the other interurban lines. This is due to the fact that the Anderson line is a profit, while the Greenfield line is a loss.

DEMOCRATIC SCHEMES

THEY ARE WORKING ESPECIALLY AMONG COLORED MEN.

It is Reported that Twenty-Nine Were Tampered with in One Voting Precinct.

WORD FROM CRAWFORDSVILLE

DEMOCRATS ARE WORKING SAME SCHEME AS AT BLOOMINGTON.

Republicans Throughout the State Must Be on Their Guard—Political Gossip.

In view of the reports from different localities of attempts of the Bryantes to influence voters in an illegal way, attention is called by the Republican State committee to the following section of the United States statutes: "Every person who prevents, hinders, controls, or intimidates another from exercising or in exercising the right of suffrage to whom the right is guaranteed by the fifteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States, by means of bribery or threats of depriving such persons of employment or occupation, or ejecting such person from a rented house, or other property, or by threats of violence to himself or family, shall be punished as provided in the preceding section."

The punishment provided in the section referred to is as follows: "Shall be fined not less than $500, or be imprisoned not less than one month nor more than one year, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment."

Fresh reports of attempts to interfere with the votes of colored men reached both State and county Republican headquarters yesterday. From Crawfordsville came the report that the same scheme put into operation at Bloomington Tuesday was being tried. This is the "dollar scheme."

A colored voter, it is related, is given $1 and asked to sign some sort of document. At the time he is told that there is more money coming to him if he will do as he is told on election day. The plan is to nab him when he attempts to vote and charge him with having sold his vote. The document is a receipt for $1.00, and is used as evidence. A number of instances of this sort were discovered at Crawfordsville yesterday. The Republican party was promptly warned to be on guard.

Reports came to county committee headquarters yesterday that the Bryantes were operating among unsuspecting colored voters in the First ward. It was claimed that twenty-nine colored men were discovered in one precinct. Colored men, it is said, have been approached and offered money to receive a receipt for $1.00 on election day. If they agree they are given a dollar and asked to sign what purports to be a receipt for $1.00. It is told that he will receive $5 or more on election day. As outlined by those who claim to know what is going on, the man who has signed the "receipt" attempts to vote he is to be held up and charged with having been a party to a scheme of bribery.

them no chance to demand money. To obviate this embarrassment they induce two men in the same party to run for two seats, and the man is counted in who pays the election board the most money. The election officers practically do the voting. I shall not be at home election day, but probably my name will be checked and a Bryan vote counted for it. Four years ago I was the Republican candidate for Congress. In one precinct a Gold Democrat who was my friend was by some mistake appointed an election officer. He said he would look out for my interests. There were about 50 negroes and thirty or forty whites in his precinct. I had all the votes but a dozen. The precinct alongside had about the same number of voters, all but few of whom were negroes. Wheeler got all of the votes except a dozen.

The most of the men who have business interests in a street in favor of the election of McKinley, but they will not fall in behind such men as run the Republican organization in most of the Southern States. We all like McKinley as President. We have faith in his justice for our sound money. The past three years have been the most prosperous Alabama has ever seen. The manufacture of cotton marks the beginning of a new era in the State.

NOON MEETINGS.

Representative Overstreet at the Panhandle Shops.

At 12:30 o'clock Saturday Representative Overstreet will deliver an address at what is known as "Trader's Point," corner of Blackford and Washington streets. Mr. Overstreet will speak to the men from the hanging packing establishment and from other factories and shops in the neighborhood.

At noon yesterday Mr. Overstreet talked to the men at the Panhandle shops, referring chiefly to the Republican party's record on labor legislation. He touched briefly upon the question of the campaign, asserting that the party has kept its promises and therefore has a right to ask the voters of the country to support the administration and elect the entire Republican ticket. The Republicans also held noon meetings at the establishment of Hetherington & Berner and at the Indianapolis Carpenters' Union. Martin Hugg was the orator at Hetherington & Berner and J. C. Adams spoke at the Carpenters' Union.

Frank B. Burke at noon spoke to the employees the Nylke & Marmion Company. Mr. Burke's audience was largely composed of Republicans, and there was, of course, no great amount of enthusiasm from this part of the audience.

HAS MADE MANY SPEECHES.

Corporal Tanner Gives His Views on Political Conditions.

Corporal James Tanner is at the Denison Hotel, suffering with throat trouble, brought on by excessive use of his voice. He is under the care of Dr. W. F. Cleveland and expects to be able to address the Tomlinson Hall meeting to-night. He did little talking last night in order to save his voice for to-night. Corporal Tanner spoke in Cincinnati Tuesday night with David B. Henderson, of Iowa. Corporal Tanner is accompanied by Wesley H. Rowe, of the national speakers' bureau, Chicago. Mr. Rowe has been in Indianapolis for the last three weeks, the greater part of the time in the West and Northwest. Corporal Tanner will carry the Joplin district. As far as Indiana is concerned, the corporation has a majority of 20 for the Republicans. Mr. Rowe says Corporal Tanner has been enthusiastically received in Cincinnati and in Cleveland.

MADE TWO SPEECHES.

Representative Overstreet at Cumberland and Castleton.

At Cumberland yesterday afternoon Representative Overstreet addressed a fine audience and one that received his remarks with enthusiasm. There was a rally in his honor and a parade of bands, Rough Riders and other organizations. There was one wagon in the parade drawn by six horses. Mr. Overstreet was greatly pleased by the demonstration in his honor. In his speech he touched upon all the issues that are so prominent in this campaign.

Bookkeeper spoke at Castleton, this county, addressing a good-sized audience. The speaker was a colored man, a blacksmith shop, seats being provided for the women. Many of the men were unable to get in the hall, and a large number of them gathered outside. As at Cumberland, the different issues of the campaign were discussed in a thorough manner. Overstreet goes into Johnson county to-night.

ROUGH RIDER PARADE.

A Feature Will Be the Marching on South Side Streets.

Colonel Cyrus J. Clark is very busy at present arranging for the big Rough Rider demonstration Monday afternoon. A feature of the parade will be through streets on the South Side to give the people of that part of the city something it has never been their pleasure to see. The line of march will be through the city, but it will be along streets the most accessible to the public. General Mount, Senator Beveridge, Captain English, Colonel Durnan, Robert A. Brown and other State and county candidates, will be in the parade. The Marion Glee Club will be mounted on the horses and dispense music from the saddle.

THE USUAL ASSESSMENT.

Police and Firemen Asked to Contribute to Democratic Fund.

It was stated yesterday that a political assessment has been levied against the Democratic members of the fire and police department and that "Billy" Maguire is making the collections. It is understood that the members of the fire department assessed according to the amount of salary they receive, a plain fireman, for instance, will be asked to contribute $1.00, while a fire engine driver will be asked $2.00. The assessment, it was stated, was made by the fire and police department, and the members of the department were asked to contribute to the Democratic fund.

PIPES SOON WENT OUT.

Democrats Who Bet Their Money Are Now Feeling Sore.

Those Democrats who snapped up some Republican bets Tuesday on the strength of the Cleveland "Interview" were much dejected yesterday when they awoke to find that Cleveland had denounced the state and federal election laws. They were a baseless lie. A number of Republican bets of 3 to 1 that McKinley will be elected were taken before it was learned that Cleveland had declared he "did not say it." While the Democrats, some of them, are willing to bet that McKinley will carry Indiana, they are not looking for Republican bets of 2 to 1 that McKinley will carry the State.

NO LONGER IN DOUBT.

General Tracey Convinces Two Men How They Should Vote.

Judge T. J. Terhune, of Lebanon, who is making some speeches in this State under the auspices of the Gold Democrats, will speak at North Indianapolis to-night. Reports came to Gold Democratic headquarters of the excellent effect of General Tracey's speech Tuesday noon to the employees of the Rockwood Manufacturing Company. It was said that two of the men who were in doubt as to how they should vote declared themselves after hearing General Tracey. It is needless to say they will support the principles advocated by the sound money orator.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO FRANKLIN.

It Will Be Run to Mr. Overstreet's Meeting To-Morrow Night.

On the occasion of Representative Overstreet's meeting at Franklin to-morrow evening a special train will be run, leaving here at 7 p. m. and returning after the meeting. The train will leave Franklin at 10 o'clock. Among the organizations that will take part in the demonstration at
